

Part B. Secondary chemical reference substances

This new Part B is intended to apply to secondary reference substances supplied as “official”, e.g. regional or national standards. In principle, secondary reference standards prepared by manufacturers can be prepared as “working standards” using the same procedures.